

Prompt of the Week Practice Sheet

Ocean for the First Time

Prompt: Describe the ocean to someone whos never seen it.

Imagine theyve never heard the waves, smelled the salt, or felt the sand. Your words are their first experience make it unforgettable.

Word Bank (use or be inspired by):

drift hush vast call salty crash foam deep moonlit

Idea:

Write it like a letter, a story, or a travel journal. Let your reader feel the ocean, even without seeing it.

Now write your poem below:

 Bonus Challenge: Can you describe the ocean without using the word 'ocean' at all?*

