Call to Worship

L: Immortal invisible God only wise

C: In light inaccessible hid from our eyes

L: Most blessed most glorious ancient of days

C: Almighty victorious your great name we praise

L: You reign in glory, you dwell in light

C: Your angels adore you, while veiling their sight

L: We praise we would render, and help us to see

C: Its only the splendor of light that hides Thee

Opening Hymn

"O Worship The King" No. 73

Invocation (in unison)

Holy God, we come to worship, to remember that upon the mountain, you revealed our Messiah, who fulfilled both the law and the prophets. By his transfiguration enlighten our paths, that we may dare to suffer with him in service to humanity. Gather us in his holy name, Amen

The Morning Scriptures

Our first reading is from II Kings 2:1-12

When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; the LORD has sent me to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.- The company of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?" "Yes, I know," Elisha replied, "so be quiet." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, Elisha; the LORD has sent me to Jericho."

And he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho. The company of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?" "Yes, I know," he replied, "so be quiet." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." And he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So the two of them walked on. Fifty men from the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan. ⁸ Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?" "Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit," Elisha replied. "You have asked a difficult thing," Elijah said, "yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours—otherwise, it will not." As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. Elisha saw this and cried out, "My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!" And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his garment and tore it in two.

This morning's reading from the Psalms, is from Psalm 50 verses 1-6

The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to where it sets. From Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth. Our God comes and will not be silent; a fire devours before him, and around him a tempest rages. He summons the heavens above, and the earth, that he may judge his people: "Gather to me this consecrated people, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice." and the heavens proclaim his righteousness, for he is a God of justice.

*Will you please stand for the Gospel - Mark 9 verses 2-9

After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them. His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.) Then a cloud appeared and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!" Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the son of Man had risen from the dead.

From My Heart To Yours...

Dear Friends,

Today is transfiguration Sunday, which marks the last Sunday before the season of Lent. The Gospel of Mark describes what happened. Jesus' garments become a dazzling white in the presence of the disciples Peter, James, and John.

The presence of Moses and Elijah remind us that Jesus stands in line with the great leaders of Israel. It also symbolizes the fulfillment of the law and the prophets through his life, death, and resurrection. The transfiguration also recalls the encounter between Moses and God on Mt. Sinai. In Paul's letter to the Corinthian Christians we are told that while Moses' face had to be veiled after encountering the Lord, through Christ you and I are given freedom to encounter God boldly. Jesus has torn the veil between earth and heaven, and invites us to enter the new covenant through faith.

I look forward to being with you this, our first Lenten season together.

Grace and Peace,
Tom
