

PARKING

The red "X" indicates the main entrance of the building where all guests should enter.

Turn left into the Southwestern Conference Center parking lot, passing the two glass buildings on Atrium Way. Go around the building and park anywhere close to the main entrance of the building distinguished by the red "X" on the map. There is a statue of two gentlemen and three flagpoles that guests will be able to see near the main entrance.

