Prayer for the Week

Lord, may we rest in your provisions instead of being anxious.

Psalm 127:2

It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; he gives to his beloved sleep.

Prayerfully prepare for next Sunday: 2 Cor. 10:3–6

- I. Read 2 Cor. 10:3–6 several times this week.
- II. How does text fit into the surrounding logic of the letter? What do you think Paul/the Holy Spirit is intending to communicate?
- III. In one short sentence, what is Paul's argument to Corinthian Christians (the original readers) in 2 Cor. 10:3–6?
- IV. What aspect of the gospel of Jesus Christ does this text connect to?
- V. In one short sentence, what argument do you think the Holy Spirit is making for us here at RBC from 2 Cor. 10:3–6? How is this the same and/or different from question III above?
- VI. What specific goals for growth/change should you prayerfully pursue in light of this passage? How could you turn this teaching into a prayer for this week? Please also pray for Bob Price as he prepares to preach this text on Sunday.
