PROPHET ELIJAH

Antiochian Orthodox Mission

Apolytikion / Troparion (Tone 4)

*The incarnate Angel, and the Prophet's summit and boast, the second forerunner of the coming of Christ our God, Elijah, the glorious, from above sent down his grace upon Elisha;
he doth cast out sickness
and also cleanse lepers, and unto all that honor him, he poureth forth streams of cures.*

Our Mission is dedicated to the Prophet Elijah, Patron and protector of our community.

Spiritual Morsels

Are you angry? Be angry at your sins, beat your soul, afflict your conscience, but strict in judgment and a terrible punisher of your own sins. This is the benefit of anger, wherefore God placed it in us. St. John Chrysostom

We all have to die, beloved brethren, and it will be hard for us if, while we are in this world, we do not love each other, if we are not reconciled to our enemies, whom we have offended, and if one has grieved another, if we do not forgive him. Then we will not have eternal blessedness in that world, and the heavenly Father will not forgive our sins.

St. Peter of Cetinje

St. Pimen the Great said: Depart from every man who loves to quarrel.

We have such a law: If you forgive, it means that God has forgiven you; but if you do not forgive your brother, it means that your sin remains with you. St. Silouan the Athonite

_____ If you become proud when you receive what you ask in prayer, then it is obvious that your prayer was not to God, and you did not receive help from Him, but the demons were working with you in order to exalt your heart; For when help is given from God, the soul is not exalted, but is all the more humbled, and she is amazed at the great mercy of God, how merciful He is to sinners. St. Barsanuphius the Great

Do not forsake prayer, for just as the body becomes weak when it is deprived of food, so also the soul when it is deprived of prayer draws nigh to weakness and noetic death. St. Gennadius of Constantinople

“It is best to live simply. Do not rack your brain. Pray to God. The Lord will arrange everything, just live more simply. Do not agonize over how and what to do; let things take their natural course. That is what it means to live simply.” St. Ambrose of Optina

The Cross @ Midnight @ the beginning of Pascha, as we processed around the Church! Christ is Risen!
