PROPHET ELIJAH

Antiochian Orthodox Mission

Apolytikion / Troparion (Tone 4)

*The incarnate Angel, and the Prophet's summit and boast, the second forerunner of the coming of Christ our God, Elijah, the glorious, from above sent down his grace upon Elisha;
he doth cast out sickness
and also cleanse lepers,
and unto all that honor him,
he poureth forth streams of cures.*

Our Mission is dedicated to the Prophet Elijah,
Patron and protector of our community.

Spiritual Morsels

(“If the world is against truth, then I am against the world!” St Athanasius the Great)

No matter how much someone embitters us, let us not pay back the bitterness he caused us, so that the road for his return remains open, when he ends up in need. Fr Epiphanius Theodoropoulos

“We are defeated by natural weaknesses: weakness of will; a darkness of the mind that was produced by our previous sinful life; the disorder of the heart that has accumulated many sinful habits; the passions of a body that has tasted the bestial pleasures and become infected with their desire. We are attacked by fallen spirits, who desire to keep us in bondage. This is that narrow and sorrowful road, paved by endurance, along which the sinner’s tears of repentance lead to reconciliation with God. Along the way, the sinner is aided by words of repentance, labors of humility, and the doing of the commandments of the Gospel, inspired by the fear of God.” St. Ignatii Brianchaninov

I am proud of the cassock I wear and consider it more valuable and seemly than every other kind of garment, even than the royal purple robes of kings. I consider myself unworthy to dress in such a modest, honorable and holy garb, which was honored by numberless monastic Saints, monk-martyrs, confessors and Saints. I am saddened and pity those clerics who reject the cassock and who shave their beards.
