 - B. Those who didn't, shipwrecked their faith.

- C. The purpose of the conscience is to bear witness to our spirit; the moral rightness of our decisions or actions. It works in two ways:
- To prevent us from committing sin.
 - To convict us when we have sinned. For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and [their] thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another. (Rom. 2:14-15)
 - Everyone saved or not have a conscience.
 - The conscience is located in the human spirit.
- VII. In order for the conscience to work properly, we must be saved. (Heb. 9:14; Heb. 10:21-22)
- A person can have an unclean conscience.
 - Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron. (1 Tim. 4:2)*
 - Howbeit [there is] not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat [it] as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. (1 Cor. 8:7)*
 - Unto the pure all things [are] pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving [is] nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. (Tit. 1:15)*
- VIII. The Holy Spirit works with our conscience.
- The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth. (John 14:17, 15:26, 16:13)
 - Truth is fidelity or faithfulness to a standard.
 - He leads and guides us into faithfulness of God's Standards.
 - The Holy Spirit works with our conscience assuring us or convicting us.
 - To the degree that our minds has been renewed in the Word of God, is the degree that the Holy Spirit can lead us by His assuring or convicting us.
- IX. Two of Paul's Statement about his Conscience.
- Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. (Acts 23:1)*
 - And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. (Acts 24:16)*
