Lesson Series Text: (Mark 4:24-29)

Lesson 5: Watering Our Seeds

Lesson 5 Text: (Mark 4:14-20)

All Scriptures are KJV; unless otherwise noted.

Prepared By Dr. Walter Henderson III

- I. As the rain so shall My Word be.
  - A. As the rain (water) saturate the earth and makes it to bring forth.
  - B. So shall my word.
  - C. The Word saturates the heart (earth) and makes it to bring forth.
  - D. It shall accomplish (ʿasah) – to make, prepare, attend to, put in order, press, squeeze, institute, ordain, bring about, etc.
  - E. It shall prosper (tsalach) – to rush, advance, succeed, be profitable, cause to prosper, to make progress, etc.
  - F. Instead of the curse, you get the blessings. (13)
- II. In scripture, the seed is equated with the word (Mark 4:14) and the water is equated with the word. (Eph. 5:26)
  - A. Everything has it's beginning with the Word of God. (Heb. 11:1-3)
- III. Let's look at the importance of rain to Israel.
  - A. The amount of rainfall in Palestine had a lot to do with the fertility of the land.
  - B. The rainy season usually began in late October or early November and ended in late April to early May.
  - C. May through October was the dry season; which was very hot and dry.
    - a. Most days, clouds were not seen in the sky.
- IV. The rainy season is grouped into three periods.
  - A. The early rains which began in early November and ended approximately by the middle of December.
  - B. The winter rains which began at the middle of December and ended in the middle of March.
  - C. The latter rains which began in the middle of March and ended in the latter part of April.
  - D. The beginning of the rainy season was called the former rain, first rain, or early rain.
  - E. The ending of the rainy season was called the latter rain or ending rain.
  - F. The former and latter rains do not describe two seasons, but two different periods in the same season; the rainy season.
- V. The early rain came at seed planting time and the latter rains came at harvesting time.
  - A. The former rain prepared the earth for the seeds.
  - B. The later rain prepared the seeds for harvest.
    - a. The later rain ripens the fruit.
  - C. The rainy season; whether former, winter, or latter rains were all about the harvest.
  - D. The farmer needed to be patient for the harvest to receive the former and latter rain. (Jam. 5:7)

- VI. Obedience and rain. (Deu. 11:8-21; Lev. 26:3-5 Read)
- A. The land is not like Egypt. (10)
    - a. The watering of the seed is different.
  - B. I will give you rain in due season. (14)
    - a. Wine (grapes) and oil (olives) during former rains.
    - b. Corn (wheat and barley) during latter rains.
  - C. The rains would create vegetation for the livestock.
  - D. Disobedience brought drought; which effected fruit bearing and brought about lack. (16-17)
    - a. Lack is a sign of the curse for disobedience.
  - E. God's desire is to multiply us and our seed. (21)
- VII. How do we water our seeds?
- A. Meditate upon God's Words. (Jos. 1:8; Psa. 1:2)
    - a. Meditate means to muse, mutter, and to plot.
  - B. This is the way to get the word in our heart and to water the word in our heart.
    - a. God's word must be in our mouth and in our hearts. (Rom. 10:8-10 Read)
  - C. Confession is made unto salvation. (10)
    - a. Confession means to say the same thing together, to covenant, to agree with.
    - b. Salvation (soteria) – deliverance, preserve, rescue, heal, etc.
- VIII. What will confession do for us?
- A. Plant seeds in the heart. (Mark 4:14)
  - B. Cause faith to come. (Rom. 10:17)
  - C. Renew the mind. (Rom. 12:2)
  - D. Keeps the answer before you. (Deu. 11:18)
  - E. Put the Angels to work for you. (Heb. 1:13-14)
