Relationship Therapy Mississauga

ABOUT US

As a growing private practice located in Mississauga, we are committed to providing person-centred therapeutic support where we foster a relationship with clients that allows them to experience the therapy journey as one where they are a valued collaborator in the process working with qualified, empathic and veracious therapists.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE:

- Enrolment in a Master's degree program in clinical psychology, marriage and family therapy, social work or equivalent.
- Commitment in supporting individuals, couples and/or families for 10-13 hours of client work weekly.
- Commitment to upholding the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice in accordance with the CRPO or the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers.
- Knowledge of and commitment to psychotherapeutic interventions in alignment with best practice.
- Commitment to honouring integrity and worth of all clients.
- Value in, and commitment to upholding a systemic, anti-oppressive, strengths-based lens
- Ability to effectively support clients through safety concerns (ex. risk assessments, safety plans etc.)
- Satisfactory Police Vulnerable Sector check
- Awareness of personal and ethical boundaries and competencies.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

Interns are such an integral part of our team, as they are the ones that best allow Relationship Therapy Mississauga to offer affordable therapy services.

We hold strong values and commitment to your continued education and learning. As members of our team, you will have access to multiple resources including, but not limited to, a collaborative support system of professional and experienced therapists and supervisors, our tools, techniques and practices.

We have crafted a customized onboarding and training program specifically designed for Master-level students as we are invested in you and your success.
