About Us

Photos are not just made from a camera or pixels. They are memories frozen in time!

We believe that the best photos are ones that are Candid and just because we are getting paid, we won't make you imagine your baby as the next MasterChef or Superhero or place them in a basket wrapped up like a toy! We will make sure to keep it real, just how they are meant to be.

Things we WILL NOT do:

- Ask your kids to smile
- Make your baby a mere prop
- Expect them to cooperate or be on their best behavior
- Think your apartment is messy, cluttered, or too small
- Tell you that time's up and we can't shoot any longer

Things we WILL do:

- Get your kids to smile
- Run around like a crazy person, make faces & moo like a cow
- Go nuts over your kid
- Embrace messy hair, fingers in the nose and snack breaks

Schedule a session and let's have some fun!

This Is Us

And now, the awkward “tell me about yourself” section. Here goes!

Akshay Gurnani (Photographer)

I’ve been shooting for over 15 years, with a passion for street and wildlife photography. Baby photography came as a natural extension because of its similarity to the unexpectedness & patience that wildlife & street demands.

While photography is my side-gig over the weekends, during the week I run an integrated marketing & communications agency called Schbang. And my love for teaching, has also led me to giving a lot of motivational talks - my most recent one being my first TEDx talk! Watch it to know more about me!

Shyla Jha Gurnani (Stylist)

When I’m not assisting Akshay on shoots, you’ll find me in my 9 to 9 corporate avatar busy trying to sell beauty to women across India. On weekends you will usually find me trying a new workout, playing with some calligraphy ink or just embracing my inner chef!

And together, we will create some ‘ta-da’ magic moments for you and your baby!
