By initialing below, I agree to abide by each provision in this Agreement and had the opportunity to ask questions about the content. Please review your agreement carefully as you will be responsible for your actions.

Group visitation takes place on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of each month from 9:00am to 1:00pm (4-hours).

3. Fee for Service: Group visitation fees are $150.00 for two 4-hour visits and will be collected at the first visit of each month. Fees are payable by cash, cash app with a $2.50 surcharge. Personal checks are not accepted. If entire fee is not paid at the first monthly visit, a $10.00 late fee will be collected. Choosing to visit for less than four hours or a missed visit does not result in the reduction of this fee. Failure to pay fees may result in termination of services or temporary suspension until fees are current. Fees are subject to change without notice.
4. Holiday Fee: Angel's Harbor is closed on holidays listed in the Welcome Packet.
5. Intake Process: Once registration is complete, and fees are paid, you are required to call the office to set up an appointment for your Intake Interview process. Process will take approximately 1-hour. After the Intake Interview, you will receive a Welcome Packet to finalize access into the Angel's Harbor Supervised Visitation Program.

Contact after 12:00pm (noon) on Wednesday will be considered "late cancellation" and will result in a $75.00 no-show fee. In case of an emergency the day of a visit, call should be made to site supervisor at least 2-hours prior to visit start time to avoid no-show fee. Site supervisor cell number will be in your Welcome Packet. Do not call/text supervisor cell number except on visit date. If parties mutually agree on the cancellation of a visit, both parties must notify the Angel's Harbor office to avoid non-show fees. If a child refuses to enter for the visit, the custodial party will be responsible for fees of that visit and a report will be prepared for the attorney/court.
2. ____ I understand that information gathered during visitation, phone conversation, email or verbally may be released pursuant to a subpoena to attorney's therapist, courts or other pertinent agency involved in my case.

Texas Laws Concerning Child Access, Child Support, etc.

Frequently asked questions that come up regarding visitation

Can a parent refuse visitation if child support is not paid? No, child support and visitation do not go together. Neither a parent nor a court can refuse to allow visitation solely on the issue of non-payment of child support. After orders are issued on child support and access, the custodial party can be held in contempt of court for refusing to allow access to the other party. It is hoped that if it is necessary to cancel a visit, the custodial party will be agreeable to making up the missed access period. Angel's Harbor tries to work with families to accommodate child participation in church, school, or special activities by offering make-up visits. A Private Visit may be a great option. Custodial parents may be expected to pay the cost of a private visit, especially if cancellations are excessive.

When can my child decide which parent to live with?

In Texas, a child's decision cannot be the sole factor in determining which parent the child lives with. However, once the child reaches the age of 12, and upon motion, the court can consider the child's wishes as to whom he/she wishes to live with.

What if one of the parents tries to move out of state?

It is always important to try and maintain a stable & safe environment for the kids and the judge will try to maintain that stable and safe environment. Typically, counties will use a standing order that prohibits the parties from taking the children out of state, or your attorney can help you get a Temporary Restraining Order that will prevent the party from moving out of state. If you already have orders in your case regarding possession and access to your children, you can still file a Temporary Order to keep the other party from moving out of state. It is possible to limit the children's residence to the state of Texas, the current county and/or contiguous counties.

Zero Tolerance Drug Policy in a Supervised Setting

PARTICIPANT DRUG POLICY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I understand that the Angel's Harbor Supervised Visitation Program have a Zero Tolerance Drug Policy and the participants in the Angel's Harbor Program are made aware of this policy as it is set out in the Agreement to Participate.

The Angel's Harbor Program drug and alcohol policy provides that if drugs or alcohol used prior to a visit is suspected, the visit will be terminated immediately. Angel's Harbor has the right and will require any party suspected of consuming drugs or alcohol to submit a copy of a hair or blood screening test to resume visits at their own expense. Future visits will be suspended pending the result of such test.

This policy applies if for any reason the staff or supervisor of the Angel's Harbor Program suspect that a party visiting a child in any setting, whether the party is visiting a child in a group setting, a privately supervised visit, a custodial party picking up a child from the Angel's Harbor Program or a party participating in the exchange of children for visitation, has consumed or used drugs or alcohol prior to arriving at Angel's Harbor Program location.

Under no circumstances will a child be released to a custodial party if the use of drugs or alcohol is suspected. The party will be required to arrange for a third person to come to the Angel's Harbor Program location (with valid Driver's License) to pick up the child for the custodial party. The Party will be responsible for having someone pick up their vehicle or returning later to get their vehicle. If the party refuses to follow these requirements law enforcement will be called, and the attorneys involved in the case notified.

I understand that my refusal to submit to a drug or alcohol screening test or a positive test result will lead to my immediate termination from the Angel's Harbor Program and, that the Court will be notified of both the termination and the reason for the termination.
