

EXCEEDING WISE

Daily Meditation – Sunday June 7, 2026

The Bible says, “There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise: The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer; The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks; The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands; The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces” (Pr. 30:24-28).¹

God goes past the elephant, lion, buffalo, the great white shark and looks to the very small ant to teach His people concerning wisdom. You will see an ant dragging something six times its size. It prepares in the summer for the winter. That is being a good manager of time. I never saw an ant sleeping. They are always on the move.

The conies cannot run and dig so they hide in the rocks. We, like the conies, at times have to protect the anointing on our lives. I went on YouTube and typed in conies. I watched the way the rocks gave them protection and how their color was similar to the rocks. They would come out and get some sun but at times did not go far.

The locusts are relentless. They cannot fly so they save their strength until the wind blows. The wind carries them for miles. One locust will eat the leaf, one locust the branch, one the stork, and one the root. By the time they are finished they can bring complete devastation to entire cities. They have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands. They are relentless and work in unity.

The spider has everything inside itself to make its home and catch its prey. The spider has eight eyes but cannot see well. However, they have feelers which allow them to discern danger and what is going on around them.

As born-again Christians, we can discern more with our Spirit's than we can see with our natural eyes. We can learn from the four things which are little upon the earth, from our text, in Proverbs 30:24-28. With this fresh revelation we can make adjustments in our lives, that brings glory to God.

PRAYER FOR SALVATION – Father God, I repent of all my sins, and I believe You raised Jesus from the dead. I confess that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life. Jesus, wash me with your holy blood. Holy Spirit fill me so I can be a mighty witness for King Jesus!
