

DAC Planning Hiring Qualified Planner

We are excited to be recruiting a qualified planner to join our expanding team and support the ongoing growth of our dynamic and unique planning consultancy.

The successful applicant will contribute to several high-profile, exciting and varied projects on behalf of a range of clients. This will include working to support the progression of Local Plans and Neighbourhood Plans across the country. They will also work as part of the wider team in developing and enhancing client and consultant relationships. This is a fantastic and rare opportunity for someone looking to expand on their current experience and work on a wide range of interesting projects.

We offer a competitive salary & benefits package, including flexible working options and professional development opportunities. We foster a supportive and friendly working culture, with both remote and hybrid working options. We work on a wide range of planning projects nationally and provide opportunities to really make a difference to the communities that we serve.

Who we are looking for

The ideal candidate will be RTPI qualified with experience in local authority planning. Experience in a planning consultancy role is desirable but not essential. You will have up to date knowledge of planning policy and experience in managing projects as well as more junior team members. You will be meticulous and proactive in your approach to personal development as well as contributing to the success of our company. Please note that we are flexible on the level of experience we are looking for. Above all, we are looking for someone who shares our passion for the work we do and who supports the community focused ethos and culture of our company.

Main tasks

- Consistently deliver high quality and timely project work
- Seek opportunities to promote reputation as well as to grow and diversify the business
- Manage projects, including overseeing the work of junior colleagues, as required
- Strive to ensure that customer expectations are met and where possible exceeded
- Keep up to date with changes in case law, policy or regulations that impact on relevant planning matters

How to apply

If you would like to apply for the position, please email your CV and covering letter to admin@dacplanning.com. Your covering letter should provide an overview of your relevant skills and experience, setting out why you are a suitable candidate. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. For an informal discussion about the role, please contact David Coleman on 01206 259281. No agencies please.

About the company

DAC Planning is a highly professional planning consultancy with experience in a wide range of projects predominantly with public sector clients and local communities. DAC Planning upholds a public service ethos and strives to create high-quality and aspirational plans which support the delivery of sustainable development, enhancing existing environments and creating safe, interesting, enjoyable, and beautiful places in which to live and work. We are a community-minded organisation, and we support local charities through volunteering and fundraising.