

White Unto the Harvest"

LI FT up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already to harvest," said Jesus to his disciples, who needed some urging in an evangelistic crusade of that day. He is saying the same thing to his followers of the twentieth century.

Missionaries have heard him, Pastors have heard him. Church-school teachers, have heard him. Although we now have over 5,000,000 church-school members, our teachers remember that nearly one half of our nation's people are unreached by the Christian message. These people constitute the fields that are "white unto harvest."

Week after week, they teach the basic Christian truths that bring light to darkened pathways and salvation to those who have not heard or have not believed.

Through their precepts and examples these modern disciples are winning people to the Christ who added in the hearing of these first century followers of his, "He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal."

Prayer for Evangelism

Increase, O God, the faith and the zeal of all thy people, that they may more earnestly desire, and more diligently seek, the salvation of their fellow men, through the message of thy love in Jesus Christ our Lord. Send forth a mighty call unto thy servants who labor in the gospel, granting unto them a heart of love, sincerity of speech, and the power of the Holy Spirit, that they may be able to persuade men to forsake sin and return unto thee. And so bless and favor the work of thine evangelists, that multitudes may be brought from the kingdom of evil into the kingdom of thy dear Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

In loving memory to Mrs. Julius Tucker who has gone from us since last year's meeting, we dedicate this space. To her husband, children, grandchildren and friends we offer
our sympathy and love.

It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all;
A song of those who answer not,
However we may call.

They throng the silence of the breast;
We see them as of yore,
The kind, the true, the brave, the sweet,
Who walk with us no more.

Today we see the results of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Coy L. Kearns, who gave the materials to re-finish the interior of this building. Thanks to them and to those who gave of their time and money to do the job.
