

MOUNT EBAL CHURCH is one of the Denton area structures included in Building the Back Country, an architectural inventory of Davidson County. The church was placed on the National Registry as part of the over-all program involved with the recognition and preservation of Davidson County architecture. (Photo by Suzi Ciupitu)

Architectural Inventory of Davidson County