“Curtain Time” Saturday 7:30, Sunday

Community Talent For This Saturday a

Denton's second annual community talent show will be presented this weekend in the school auditorium, with an evening performance scheduled for 7:30 Saturday plus a matinee at 3:00 Sunday afternoon.

Admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for children age 12 and under.

“Curtain Time” is the title chosen for this year's show, indicating not only that it will be a night of entertainment, but that proceeds will go into a fund to repair, rejuvenate, and (eventually) replace the stage curtains in Denton School auditorium.

The show will include 17 vocalists (ranging from gospel to Broadway), 11 dancers (everything from clogging to pointe ballet), nine various instrumentalists and four variety acts. And Morris will be master of ceremonies.

“Diamond Country”, the live band that made its debut at last year's show, will

MOUNT EBAL CHURCH is one of about 20 buildings in the county that have been recently nominated to the National Register of Historic Places. The Adderton-Badgett House at Jackson Hill was also on the list. Nomination came after completion of an inventory by architectural historian Paul Touart. While nomination does not bring automatic inclusion, there is a good possibility of approval. The J.C. Reid farm near here has been on the National Register for several years.
