

Quick Start - Ages 5-7

This class focuses on hand-eye coordination, and the basic fundamentals to learn the game of tennis. This class uses equipment scaled down to the player's size, including Red Starter Ball, but will learn using the 3' net

Future Stars - Ages 8-11

This class will continue to work on the fundamentals of each stroke. The serve will be introduced, as well as score-keeping. Players will begin to rally with each other using the Orange Starter Ball and the 10 and under 60' court lines.

Tournament Prep - Ages 11+

This class is for intermediate players. Players that have progressed through the USTA progression series, and for all high school junior varsity and varsity players not currently invited to the Elite Academy. Players will work on fundamentals, shot selection and control, spins, and point play and patterns. Players will use regular yellow ball and play on full court tennis. Players must be approved by the Tennis Instructor before admission is allowed.

Conway Elite

This class is Invite Only!!! This is for players currently playing in local area tournaments and higher. Players will improve shot selection, footwork, and playing patterns through advanced drills, and match play. Players must make high school varsity team, or currently have a USTA Southern ranking to be considered for invitation.
