Passes can be purchased at
World Trade Center station.

INBOUND vehicles are heading toward the center stations (e.g. Park Street) and OUTBOUND ones are heading away. At stations in the center, signs will display the direction of the line (e.g. NORTHBOUND).

Only SL1 OUTBOUND buses go to the Airport. While the trip from the airport is free, you must have a pass or pay for the return trip.

All INBOUND Silver Line buses go to South Station.

There are many free smartphone apps that provide realtime subway and bus information. Visit: www.mbtta.com/trip-planner
