Worship Celebration

*“Ordinary People Doing Extra Ordinary Things In Ordinary Times”
Philippians 3:14*

Praise And Worship

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heavenly host, Praise Father Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Call To Celebration

Minister: I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord, our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem. (Psalm 122:1)

People: For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. (Psalm 84:10)

Minister: Because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek thy good. (Psalm 122:9)

People: Those that be planted in the house of the Lord, shall flourish in the courts of our God. (Psalm 92:13)

Minister: Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, Lord, I have loved thy habitation, the place where thy honor dwelleth. (Psalm 84:4)

People: For the Lord is in His holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him. (Habakkuk 2:20)

Minister: Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer. (Psalm 19:14)

People: O sing unto the Lord a new song, for He has done marvelous things. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, and all the earth sing His praises. (Psalm 98:1,4)

Scripture Lesson: Acts 19: 1-7

From All That Dwell Below The Skies

From all that dwell below the skies, Let the Creator's praise arise. Let the Redeemer's name be sung. Through every land by every tongue.

The Contemporary Decalogue:

Leader: Let us express our commitment to keep God's law.

People: God of our salvation, only you are God. We will make no idols. We will not invoke with malice Your name, O God. We will remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy. We will honor our father and our mother. We will not commit murder. We will not commit adultery. We will not steal. We will not bear false witness. We will not covet anything that belongs to our neighbor.

People: (Singing) Lord have mercy upon us and incline our hearts to keep this law. My soul be on thy guard, ten thousand foes arise. A host of sins are pressing hard to draw me from thy side

Leader: Jesus said: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment.

People: (Singing) Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Leader: Thou shall not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

People: Jesus also challenged us with a sacred commandment which is like the first: We shall love our neighbor as our self! On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets. (Decalogue by Bishop Jeffery Leath).

The GLORIA PATRI

All: (Singing) Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Invitation To Christian Discipleship

Affirmation of Faith/Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only son our Lord who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. The third day He arose from the dead; He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Church universal, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.

Doxology / Benediction

You have come to worship, now leave to serve!

Father, challenge us to grow in Your wisdom as Jesus grew. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Thought to Remember:

Being about our heavenly Father's business is our task-no matter what.

Weekly prayer from the Church School Standard Lesson Commentary
Submitted by Mrs. Esther May

The Evangelistic Corner

The Way Of Salvation

- All have sinned (Romans 3:23).
- The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).
- Christ died for our sins (Romans 5:8).
- If we confess and believe that God raised Jesus from the dead we shall be saved (Romans 10 :9-10).

Sinners Prayer

Jesus I know that I am a sinner and I ask for Your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead.

I turn from my sins and invite you to come into my heart and my life. I want to trust You and follow You as my Lord and Savior. In Your name, Amen

*Make allowances for each others faults, and forgive anyone who offends you.
Remember the Lord forgave you,
so you must forgive others.*

Wearing A Face Mask/Covering Is Required

As of May 14th, wearing a mask in Los Angeles is no longer optional. That day City of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti issued a new requirement stating that everyone has to wear a face covering when they are outside their own home.

The Mayor said that it is a necessary step to help slow the spread of the coronavirus and eventually reopen the economy in a bigger way. "Bring your mask with you whenever you leave your home," Garcetti said. "That will help us get more freedoms."

WHERE must you wear a face covering? ♦ If you visit any retail business, including those that are open only for curbside or door side pickup. ♦ If you exercise in your neighborhood or are on a trail, golf course or beach (where you must wear a face covering if you are out of the water and people are nearby) ♦ If you ride on L.A. Department of Transportation transit buses, Metro buses or trains, or travel through Los Angeles International Airport.

The new guidelines on face coverings exempt children under 2 and people with certain disabilities.

WHY you should wear a face covering - Face coverings protect wearers from possibly spreading the virus to others, reducing the exhaled aerosols from infectious, but asymptomatic, individuals. Masks can keep the virus from spreading. Additionally, the coverings serve as a really helpful physical barrier when you cough or sneeze, actions can propel this cloud of droplets from you up to 25 or 26 feet. A face covering can "disrupt" that cloud and keep those virus particles from traveling.

As businesses reopen and employees return to work, face coverings can play a pivotal role in helping block the spread of the virus, especially from asymptomatic carriers. The more people in a given space wearing masks, the less viral particles are making it into the space around them, decreasing exposure and risk.

Face coverings can't do it alone though. They should be used in conjunction with social distancing, not as a replacement of that practice.

Your cloth face covering should: ♦ Reach above the nose, below the chin, and completely cover the mouth and nostrils ♦ Fit snugly against the sides of the face ♦ Be made of multiple layers of fabric that you can still breathe through ♦ Be able to be laundered and machine dried without damaging the material or shape.

Please do not buy surgical masks or N95 masks to use as a face covering. These masks are intended for healthcare workers and first responders. Many items you may already have in your home can be used to create face coverings.

People with a disability - Since the COVID-19 pandemic is currently considered a direct threat by the E E O C, a business would likely be on solid ground to require customers to wear face masks or coverings when entering their premises. However, a business would not have the absolute right to refuse to provide a customer service based upon the customer's refusal to wear a face covering. When faced with a customer who is refusing to wear a face mask or covering, businesses should likely limit any questions to the following: Are you unable to wear a mask because of a disability?

If the answer is "Yes," the business should consider moving to engaging the customer in an interactive process to determine possible alternative methods of service that would allow the business to keep its employees and other customers safe, while still providing service/goods to the customer.

Stubbed Your Toe? Swearing May Help Dull the Pain

Ouch! Many of us swear when we get hurt, and a new study shows it actually does help.

Turns out that swearing can significantly increase your pain tolerance -- but only if you use real swear words, and not G-rated versions that mimic them, British researchers report.

For the study, 92 volunteers held their hands in an ice bath. To assess their pain threshold, researchers timed how long it took them to begin to feel pain, and their pain tolerance was determined by how long they were able to keep their hands in the freezing water.

Each participant did the experiment four times. In random order, they were instructed to repeat either actual expletives or the fake swear words "twizpipe" and "fouch."

Using actual swear words increased their pain tolerance by 33%, while the fake swear words did little to help people cope. The findings were recently published in the journal Frontiers in Psychology.

"This is the first study to assess whether novel 'swear' words have any pain-relieving effects. They didn't, even though they were rated as being funny and emotion arousing," said lead author Richard Stephens, a senior lecturer in psychology at Keele University in the United Kingdom.

"This new finding confirms that it's not the surface properties of swear words, such as how they sound, that underlie the beneficial effects of swearing, but something much deeper, probably linked back to childhood as we learn swear words growing up," he said in a university news release.

Two Lysol Products Can Kill Coronavirus: EPA

The EPA said laboratory tests found that Lysol Disinfectant Spray and Lysol Disinfectant Max Cover Mist destroy the virus two minutes after contact, CNN reported.

The agency says there are 420 disinfectant products that are effective against "harder-to-kill" viruses than the new coronavirus, but the two Lysol are products are the first to be tested directly against the virus and able to kill it.

A recent U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention survey found that Americans said they were cleaning more often because of the coronavirus pandemic, but only about half said they actually knew how to clean and disinfect their home safely, CNN reported.
