Praise and Worship

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heavenly host, Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Call To Worship

Minister: I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord, our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem. (Psalm 122:1)

People: For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. (Psalm 84:10)

Minister: Because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek thy good. (Psalm 122:9)

People: Those that be planted in the house of the Lord, shall flourish in the courts of our God. (Psalm 92:13)

Minister: Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, Lord, I have loved thy habitation, the place where thy honor dwelleth. (Psalm 84:4)

People: For the Lord is in His holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him. (Habakkuk 2:20)

Minister: Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer. (Psalm 19:14)

People: O sing unto the Lord a new song, for He has done marvelous things. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, and all the earth sing His praises. (Psalm 98:1,4)

August Wilson's Jitney

Mark Taper Forum

Tickets price $70 - NO REFUNDS

Jitney is a play by August Wilson. The eighth in his "Pittsburgh Cycle", this play is set in a worn-down gypsy cab station in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in early autumn 1977.

Regular taxi cabs will not travel to the Pittsburgh Hill District of the 1970s, and so the residents turn to jitneys—unofficial, unlicensed taxi cabs—that operate in the community. This play portrays the lives of the jitney drivers at the station owned by Jim Becker.

10:45 a.m. 2Timothy 1: 5

Summary Of The Decalogue:

Minister: From all that dwell below the skies, let thy Creator's praise arise. Let thy Redeemer's name be sung, through every land by every tongue.

People: (Singing) From all that dwell below the skies, let thy Creator's praise arise. Let thy Redeemer's name be sung, through every land by every tongue.

Minister: Minister: Hear what Christ our Savior said; Thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

All: (Singing) Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith/Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only son our Lord who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. The third day He arose from the dead; He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Church universal, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.

"Holy God although we love Your Laws, help us not to fall into the trap of thinking that we are saved by those laws. Forgive us when we have treated rules as more important than people. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen."

The Way Of Salvation

- All have sinned (Romans 3:23).
- The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).
- Christ died for our sins (Romans 5:8).
- If we confess and believe that God raised Jesus from the dead we shall be saved (Romans 10 :9-10).

Sinners Prayer

Jesus I know that I am a sinner and I ask for Your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead.

I turn from my sins and invite you to come into my heart and my life. I want to trust You and follow You as my Lord and Savior.

In Your name, Amen

RE: Use of the Church Facility

For ANY and ALL use of the church facility, a Facility Use Agreement MUST be completed.

This includes but is not limited to: rehearsals, concerts, plays, meetings, holiday events, funerals, repasts, community events, the parking lot, anniversaries, weddings, classrooms etc.

The church office must be contacted to determine if your desired date and time are available, however, the completion of the Facility Use Agreement officially documents and places your event on the church calendar - thus eliminating conflicts with other events that may be requested for the same day/time.

Completion of the Facility Use Agreement is also necessary for the scheduling of staff and the set up for your event.

The only exemptions from the Facility Use Agreement are Bethel LA organizations/auxiliaries that have regularly scheduled weekly/monthly meetings that are identified and documented at the beginning of each Conference Year.

Helen Smith and Margaret Jeter are the Bethel LA Facility Use Coordinators and are to be contacted for the completion of the Facility Use Agreement.
