

Cancellation Policy:

1. Cancellation by the Participant:

- Participants must provide a minimum notice of 24 hours before the class time.

2. Make-Up Classes:

- In the event of a cancellation made within the notice period, participants may be entitled to a make-up class.
- Make-up classes are subject to availability and must be scheduled within a specified time frame, such as 30 days from the missed class.

3. Refunds:

- There are no refunds. The organizer will reschedule you for a future class if you cancel within 24 hours.

4. Cancellation by the Organizer:

- In rare circumstances, the organizer reserves the right to cancel a class.
- In such cases, participants may be offered a make-up class or a full refund.
- The organizer will make reasonable efforts to provide timely notice of any cancellations.

5. Force Majeure:

- The cancellation policy may not apply in cases of force majeure, such as inclement weather, natural disasters, or other unforeseen circumstances.
- In such cases, the organizer will make efforts to reschedule the class or provide alternative arrangements.

6. Communication:

- All cancellations and rescheduling requests must be communicated through the designated communication channels provided by the organizer.
- The organizer may require written confirmation of cancellations or rescheduling requests.

7. Policy Updates:

- The cancellation policy may be subject to updates or revisions, which will be communicated to participants in a timely manner.
- Participants are encouraged to regularly review the cancellation policy for any changes.
