Speaking of leadership, your neighbors and friends have something to say about Mayor Ginny Dickey!

Linda Somo: “Ginny Dickey, has been a proven leader who is always prepared with facts, listens to input from all sides, and then leads with the best decisions for our future.”

Paul Smith: “It takes strong, empathetic leadership qualities to guide diverse organizations toward consensus of positive goals. Add to that the ability to relate and hear the visions and concerns of all of us. Mayor Dickey, you hear us. You are one of us.”

Eric Landau: “...enjoy the leadership of a congenial, inclusive mayor who is fully engaged, knowledgeable and effective in town governance while being open to hearing the voices of the diverse interests and opinions of Fountain Hills residents and business owners.”

Pam Cap: “She is focused on us and our town. It’s as simple as that.”

Peggy Yeargain: “...a true representative of our community, and she has proven that she is capable of guiding the town through the crossroads of tough, emotional decisions.”

Rich Gohl: “...a visionary leader who recognizes important needs and takes responsible, thoughtful action to address them. She is a servant leader and has earned our support through decades of service to the Town. Our Town needs her brand of leadership.”

Cindy Couture: “Mayor Dickey not only came prepared with intelligent, cogent, relevant questions, but demonstrated a fundamental understanding of town finance unlike anyone else on the dais... show our gratitude and good sense and elect Mayor Dickey once again.”

Howard Iskyan: “A vote for Ginny Dickey is a vote for the continued improvement of Fountain Hills.”

Beth Culp: “Mayor Dickey has an articulated vision and a talent for working collaboratively to achieve that vision: a unified and even more vibrant Fountain Hills.”

Jesse James: “... keep the Town moving in a positive direction with optimism, unity and respect for all. My vote will be to re-elect Mayor Dickey.”

Linda Fraser: “She doesn’t shy away from making those tough decisions. Bottom line, she does her homework. I can’t imagine a more qualified leader to represent us in our town and outside our boundaries, too.”

Gene Slechta: “We have the safest community in the valley. We have among the lowest taxes. We have a detailed plan to address our streets. We have migrated to a town-owned fire department without a glitch. We successfully navigated through the medical and financial pain of COVID. Ginny Dickey has led us through all these success stories.”

Hillary Quinton: “It takes a leader who has a vision of what the town needs and the wisdom to see projects through to fruition. Mayor Dickey knows how to be a leader and is effectively moving our community forward.”

Rita Higgins: “Ginny Dickey has earned our admiration for her thoughtful review of issues, her careful integration of Town Master Plans and surveys, and her collaborative respect and support for Town staff. She is honest, professional and does her homework.”

Lisa Miller: “Ginny leads our town without needing to focus attention on herself. She’s a strong leader who makes decisions based on what’s best for the majority and treats all residents with respect.”

Dave Long: “I value Mayor Dickey’s dedication and service to our town and appreciate her calm demeanor when mediating the inevitable problems and disagreements confronting the town council.”

Ceil Villawakins: “...she stands above the noise of anything negative. She just keeps on governing within what we have and what we are given. Indeed, a true public servant we deserve.”
