

PAUL BROWN
LEGACY FOUNDATION

Gift Acceptance Policy

Purpose

The purpose of this Gift Acceptance Policy is to ensure that all donations received by the Paul Brown Legacy Foundation support its charitable mission while maintaining the highest standards of integrity, transparency, and legal compliance.

General Principles

The Foundation will accept gifts that support its charitable objectives, comply with applicable laws, and do not expose the Foundation to undue risk or reputational harm. The Foundation reserves the right to decline any gift inconsistent with these principles.

Acceptable Forms of Gifts

The Foundation may accept donations in the form of cash, checks, credit or debit card contributions, electronic transfers, publicly traded securities, and other gifts approved by the Board of Directors.

Gifts Subject to Review

Certain gifts may require additional review or Board approval, including unusually large donations, anonymous contributions, gifts with restrictions attached, non-cash assets such as real estate, and international donations.

Prohibited Gifts

The Foundation will not accept donations that originate from illegal activities, are intended to improperly influence decisions, conflict with the mission or values of the Foundation, or jeopardize its tax-exempt status.

Donor Transparency

The Foundation maintains transparency and accountability in all fundraising activities. Donor information may be recorded for compliance, reporting, and audit purposes while respecting donor privacy.

Board Oversight

The Board of Directors retains final authority regarding acceptance or refusal of any gift to the Foundation.

Right to Decline

The Paul Brown Legacy Foundation reserves the right to decline any gift if acceptance is determined to be inconsistent with its mission, ethical standards, or legal obligations.
