Grant Application Guidelines

Overview

The Paul Brown Legacy Foundation is committed to empowering lives through love, learning, and legacy. Through strategic grantmaking, the Foundation supports nonprofit organizations that create meaningful and lasting impact in communities across the United States.

Eligibility

- Must be a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization or operate under a fiscal sponsor.
- Must operate within the United States.
- Must demonstrate alignment with the Foundation's mission and funding priorities.
- Must have the organizational capacity to successfully implement the proposed project.

Funding Priorities

Educational Advancement: Programs that expand educational opportunity, mentorship, literacy, college access, and workforce development.

Health and Wellness: Initiatives that improve physical and mental health and increase access to healthcare resources.

Community and Youth Development: Programs that strengthen neighborhoods and support youth leadership and development.

Types of Grants

Program Grants: Funding for specific programs with defined goals and measurable outcomes.

Capacity Building Grants: Support to strengthen an organization's operations or leadership.

General Operating Support: Flexible funding for overall organizational needs.

Application Process

Step 1 – Submit a Letter of Inquiry (LOI)

A 1–2 page summary describing your organization, the proposed project, requested funding amount, and alignment with the Foundation's mission.

Step 2 – Invitation to Submit a Full Proposal

Selected applicants may be invited to submit a full proposal including project details, budget, organizational background, and evaluation metrics.

Step 3 – Review and Decision

All proposals are reviewed by the Foundation's Grant Review Committee. Decisions are typically communicated within 8 weeks.

Deadlines

Letters of Inquiry are accepted on a rolling basis. Applicants may receive an invitation to submit a full proposal within approximately four weeks.

Submission

All LOIs and proposals should be submitted electronically to:
