Beloved of St. Monica Catholic Community,

Congratulations to Joe & Carmen Grasso on the baptism of their great granddaughter last Sunday. God shines on our little community.

Last week we listened to Jesus teaching us to pray. I found a prayer I wrote to God from 2011 before I went to Loyola for graduate studies in pastoral clinical studies. It was the feast of St. Monica and I was in the Cathedral of St. Augustine where I was ordained in 1990. Little did I know that I would be the pastor of St. Monica seven years later.

O Beloved

My source of light and Breathe!

I sit here before you

Before the Eucharist

Where I will feast on you.

O joy to be alive

Even in the darkness of my soul

O how I long

To be embraced by You

Challenged by You

Simply walk and talk with You.

Help me, Jesus

survive this journey into darkness

frightened but secure in faith

Thanks for healing my Dad

Give him more wisdom and love

I love you

You know this

I celebrate just being

I am like the bird who struggles to fly

And yet I know one day... I will soar with You.

within You

and on a solitary journey

until united forever

Beloved of You!

Love, joy, peace ~

MUSIC MINISTRY

“Music serves and prepares the table but it’s not the feast. It clears the room of the heart and mind that comes in so busy but doesn’t fill it with its own busyness. Sacred music is a beauty that prepares us to be able to receive the fullness of grace in the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar. It does not replace it as worship. It does not become an end in itself and as Beauty is not self-indulgent but points to the Ethereal.

Sacred music is that beauty that prepares us to pray, that opens our heart to receive the Word within us.”

Revelation Calls - Inspiration Answers

God calls us through His revealed creation, His sacred word, and His embracing love.

He inspires us to answer the call, to follow Christ, and to love our neighbor. He invites us to the table of Christ, just as we should invite our neighbor to share in the joy of that table.

Who is our neighbor? Ask rightly, the question is who is not our neighbor?

Do you know someone that may be ready to approach God’s table; That may want to join in the fullness of our Catholic faith?

Are you that someone?

“Glorious Lives” brings the late Cardinal’s story to life through intimate interviews with the people closest to him—his sister, his colleagues, and his brother priests.

Cardinal George was a true imitator of Christ. He never let anything come between him and his mission to bring the love of Jesus wherever it was needed the most. He was exactly who the Church needed during his lifetime, and his contributions still inspire many today.

the EXAMEN

The Examen is a method of reviewing your day in the presence of God. It’s actually an attitude more than a method, a time set aside for thankful reflection on where God is in your everyday life. It has five steps, which most people take more or less in order, and it usually takes 15 to 20 minutes per day. Here it is in a nutshell:

- 1 Ask God for light.
I want to look at my day with God’s eyes, not merely my own.
- 2 Give thanks.
The day I have just lived is a gift from God. Be grateful for it.
- 3 Review the day.
I carefully look back on the day just completed, being guided by the Holy Spirit.
- 4 Face your shortcomings.
I face up to what is wrong—in my life and in me.
- 5 Look toward the day to come.
I ask where I need God in the day to come.

WWW.IGNATIANSPIRITUALITY.COM

Over 400 years ago, St Ignatius of Loyola developed this prayer method as a means to reflect on the events of your day and see where God was present in it. It is still popular today.
