FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Reprieve Spa Earns First-Ever Nomination for Cleveland Magazine's Best of CLE Awards

CHAGRIN FALLS, Ohio - Reprieve Spa is celebrating an exciting milestone after earning its first-ever nomination for Cleveland Magazine's Best of CLE Awards, recognizing the spa as one of Northeast Ohio's premier destinations for wellness, relaxation, and self-care.

Owned by Erica Medina, Reprieve Spa has become known for delivering an elevated spa experience rooted in personalized care, luxurious treatments, and genuine hospitality. With more than 500 five-star reviews, the spa has built a loyal following by creating a peaceful retreat where every guest feels welcomed, restored, and cared for.

"This nomination means so much because it comes from the people we serve every day," said Medina. "We are incredibly grateful to everyone who nominated us and trusted us to be part of their wellness journey."

Beyond its exceptional spa services, Reprieve is also recognized for Aliye's Reprieve, a monthly initiative that provides complimentary spa experiences for those battling cancer. The program reflects the spa's belief that healing extends beyond treatments and that every person deserves a moment of comfort, restoration, and compassion.

From customized Eminence Organic facials and therapeutic massage to holistic body treatments and wellness experiences, Reprieve Spa has earned a reputation as a hidden gem where luxury meets heartfelt care.

As voting enters the final round, Reprieve Spa is inviting clients, friends, and the Northeast Ohio community to help celebrate this exciting first nomination by casting their vote.

Voting for Cleveland Magazine's Best of CLE is now open.
