From Preacher Bob

Anne Lotz, Billy Graham's daughter, is one of my favorite writers. No one is better at applying the Bible to our daily lives. I cannot wait to get my book. It covers a theme I have been stressing for the last three years: "The Life of Prayer" where we begin, spend and end the day conscious of being in the presence of God, like the writer of Psalm 1. We do not "pray" all the time. The Bible is our sword (Eph. 6) and for every situation we face, there is a Bible verse. Spurgeon says, 'Our sword is in the scabbard, ready to be drawn at any moment.'

Day 25

9. The Birth of Jesus [Luke 2:1-7]

The time for Roman taxation every 14 years came, and Mary, nine months pregnant, traveled 90 miles South {walking, donkey, wagon} with Joseph to their ancestral city, Bethlehem. Upon arriving she went into labor, and finding no room in an inn Joseph found a place and Jesus was born in a barn, stall or cave (probably for the Inn) where animals were sheltered and fed.

The term "manger" meant the stall or the trough (probably wooded) where the animal's food was placed. Since baby Jesus was placed into it, it was most likely the trough, as we see in Manger Scenes. No animals are mentioned, but being winter, we can assume they were present.
