Five to Life Ministries

For over 30 years, Five to Life Ministries has been dedicated to sharing the gospel, and their love for Christ through a cappella harmony.

Five to Life has been a beacon of gospel music in Central New York for over three decades with its soul-stirring a cappella harmonies. What began as a passion for music and ministry by founders James Robinson and Wesley Hampton has evolved into a cherished tradition, enriching communities with their unique blend of gospel and a cappella styles.

During every performance, rhythm courses through the veins of Five to Life, evident in the synchronized tapping of toes and the gentle snap of fingers. Yet, beyond musicality, the group embodies the essence of brotherhood and joy. Their performances resonate with the shared delight of singing alongside brothers, forging bonds that transcend just melodies.

Comprising James Robinson, Wesley Hampton, Darrin Caster, Fred Hintz, and Eric Anderson, Five to Life boasts a diverse set of backgrounds united by a profound love for music and an unwavering commitment to the gospel of Christ. Each member brings a distinct flavor to the ensemble, yet they find common ground in their shared devotion to their craft and faith.

At the heart of Five to Life lies a simple yet profound belief: music and faith hold the key to overcoming life's trials. As James Robinson eloquently says, "No matter what you are going through, Jesus can, and will fix it, if you let Him." Their faith permeates every note they sing, infusing their performances with a transcendent hope that resonates deeply with audiences.

Five to Life's mission extends far beyond entertainment. With every performance, they strive to fulfill their calling as ambassadors of the gospel by spreading the message of God's love and redemption to all who will listen. Their ministry of music is a labor of love dedicated to guiding others toward spiritual enlightenment and salvation.

In a world often fraught with discord and strife, Five to Life is a testament to the power of musical and spiritual harmony. Through their dedication to their music and faith, they illuminate the darkness with the radiant light of gospel music, offering solace and inspiration to all fortunate enough to hear them sing.
