PATHWAY TO PLAYING IN ITALY

Leveraging their deep connections to Boston-based youth soccer clubs, Boston Azzurri's partnership and investment in Riccione Calcio Femminile affords the opportunity to establish a pathway for young female soccer players to train and play in Italy.

Boston Azzurri is developing exchange programs for US youth soccer players to train with the professional staff and junior team players in Riccione, and to bring Riccione Calcio Femminile's technical coaches to the Boston area for clinics and workshops.

In addition to the 1st team, RCF has Youth, U12, U15 and U17 teams that compete locally.

The NEFC 2008 Red Boston Azzurri team will be wearing Riccione Calcio Femminile jerseys during their scrimmages and training sessions each spring to show their support for the club and raise awareness of international partnerships.
