

Collaborative Problem Solving

An Innovative Trauma-Informed Approach for Teaching, Treating and Parenting Kids with Challenging Behavior

CPS Introductory Overview

May 17, 2018 • 8am – 4pm

Quail Hill Community Center
35 Shady Canyon Drive, Irvine, CA

Kids with challenging behavior CAN do better with our help!!!

Who should attend?

- ✓ Educators & Childcare Providers
- ✓ Mental Health & Healthcare Providers
- ✓ Parents & Caregivers

What will I learn/gain?

- ✓ Comparisons of how CPS more effectively addresses behavior than traditional models
- ✓ Overview of how to assess and plan intervention components of the CPS Model
- ✓ Understanding of Strategies for when a child has difficulty with cognitive flexibility, emotional regulation, expressing needs
- ✓ Understanding of Strategies for proactively working with children to build skills for areas of chronic challenges
- ✓ Understanding of Strategies to foster positive relationship and skill

Training Details:

Details: 5/17 – 8:00a – 4:00p

Cost: Early Bird Discounted
$129 (by 4/2)
Regular Discounted
$149 (after 4/2)

- BPT Processing Fee applies,
or mail check to HBCC for no fee
- NASW Members 25% Discount
Email Debra Ann for NASW Code

Continuing Education: Certificate for 7 PDU's is provided to each attendee from Mass General Hospital

Questions: Contact Debra Ann at dafarian@hbcc.us

Sponsored by:

Think:Kids Certified Trainers:

Bowman Consulting Group

Rick Bowman, M.A., Clinical Psychology
Doris Bowman, M.S. Education/Special Education

LIMITED SEATING! REGISTER ONLINE NOW!

<http://oc-cps-intro-5-17-18.brownpapertickets.com>