PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi Everyone, If you look out your window, you'll probably see what I'm seeing today. The red maples are starting to turn in my complex, and we are about to enter the season that makes us glad we live in Michigan. This season is a wonderful time to get outdoors and paint or take lots of photos to bring back indoors and paint throughout the winter. Nothing beats our fall color and Mother Nature's preparations for the cold to come. There are certain streets and areas which are particularly spectacular. Orchard View, in Royal Oak, Linden Street in Birmingham, and Eton Street in Birmingham and all its neighboring streets. There are dozens, probably hundreds, more. You don't even have to look hard. We are surrounded by the colors of fall, most within walking distance or a short drive.

Use some of that fall inspiration to get some work ready for the Art at the Museum Show and Sale at the end of October. Sign-up sheets for entering and volunteering to help during the show will be available at the meeting on October 1st.

Also, thank you for helping us clean up after our first meeting at the new location. We will always need extra hands to return the meeting room to the way we found it.
