Royal Oak Historical Museum – Webster & Crooks

Hi Everyone,

As you receive this newsletter, the Museum Show is wrapping up for another year. It is/was a very good show with a wide variety of quality entrants.

Mike's presentation at the October meeting was very interesting and gave us insight into using underpainting to bring hidden life to our paintings. We are always looking for new programs to present to our members, so if you have any suggestions please offer them up. The more variety from experts we have in our program lineup, the more fun and education for all. I am looking forward to seeing you all at the November meeting. Members: Don't forget to bring your Artist of the Month entry. And those of you who haven't rejoined for this year, bring your checkbook and see Carol at the meeting. Our meetings, for the rest of the year will be at the Senior Center. Hope you are all well and are ready to create and share your beautiful art! With the holidays right around the corner, remember original art makes wonderful gifts. See you soon.

Therese Christman

“Interview with a Lifelong Artist”

SOAA Member and longtime citizen of Royal Oak, Therese Christman has quite a story to tell. I enjoyed very much talking with Therese and learning about her first experience as an artist doing a quick sketch for her Dad as a child. That art ended up being used in plans for a Lansing Hospital.

Did you know Therese is also a noted author of three books and in her 90s is writing her fourth? Each book, a historical novel, tells a story from Therese's past with a positive message to share.
