QUALITY WHEN IT COUNTS

Your new home is one of the biggest purchases you'll make. Whether you're buying, building or selling the home you're in, Keylight Home Inspections will provide a high-quality report to help you make a confident decision.

As Arizona board certified licensed home inspectors and members of the American Society of Home inspectors (ASHI), we have the Knowledge and experience to provide a thorough and comprehensive Understanding of your purchase or sale.

What does that mean to you?

Keylight Home Inspections abides by the standards of practice and code of ethics written by the State of Arizona. Additionally, all inspections are non-invasive and entail a detailed review with the client at the end of the inspection.

WHY INSPECT?

- Inspecting beforehand can save money and alleviate surprises
- Detection of structural issues
- Budgeting for future maintenance costs
- Reduce the chance for warranty disputes
- Discover potential health & safety issues
- Pre-sale inspections allow you to list or purchase your Home with confidence.
