

BRITTANY NYKIEL

Board Member | Educator | Community Advocate

A resident of Lake County, Illinois, Brittany Nykiel is a dedicated professional currently completing her Bachelor's degree in Special Education with a minor in English as a Second Language (ESL) at Illinois State University. As a member of the university's specialized degree cohort, she is committed to fostering inclusive learning environments where every student is provided the opportunity to excel.

Brittany serves as a Special Needs Paraprofessional and Community Service Supervisor at Woodland Intermediate School. A collaborative leader, she serves on the Stakeholder Interview Committee for District 50, where she works alongside a team of professionals to evaluate candidates for both administrative and teaching positions. This role allows her to contribute to the long-term success of the district by ensuring that new leadership and faculty align with the community's values and educational excellence.

Driven by a profound commitment to social responsibility, Brittany is a steadfast advocate for the underserved. She frequently volunteers her time with local nonprofit organizations, offering her skills and support to assist those in need. Her dedication to community welfare is further reflected in her active involvement with her church, where she contributes to outreach efforts and local theatrical productions.

As a member of the Board of Directors for Radiant Precious Jewels, Inc., Brittany is honored to advance the organization's mission of empowering young women. As a wife and mother of four, she understands the vital importance of building a foundation of confidence, self-love, and self-respect in the next generation. Through her board service, she strives to help young girls discover their unique value and equip them with the tools necessary to shine brightly in all their endeavors.

"Dedicated to empowering the next generation of leaders through education, mentorship, and service."
