Membership categories

Members can be Full Playing Members - either Continuing, Introductory Year, or Junior - or Associate Members. All members are welcome at the Club whenever it is open.

Full Playing members must be 18 or over, and are eligible to play in all matches, internal, external or roll-ups.

Associate membership is available to all individuals who wish to support the purposes of the Club but are not able or wishing to play in regular competitions.

Continuing full playing members are entitled to a gate key and, subject to availability, a locker, free of charge.

Volunteering

The club is entirely volunteer run.

Members contribute in a variety of ways, including but not limited to the following: 1) coaching and inducting new members 2) marking and refereeing 3) grounds, the green, pathways, gardens and clubhouse maintenance 4) organising, supporting and promoting fundraising events 5) preparing and serving refreshments, clearing away and washing up 6) helping with club administration.

Your Data

Please note that your data are used for membership administration and communication about Club events. E-mail and telephone contacts are normally shared with other players for the purpose of arranging matches. Members normally join the club WhatsApp groups for ease of communication.

By becoming a member, you agree to abide by the policies, regulations, rules and byelaws of the Club.

Full details are available on the Club website: muswellhillbowlsclub.co.uk.
