Highlights

Our Saturday keynote speaker Pamela Landwirth leads an 84-acre whimsical resort called Give Kids The World Village in Kissimmee, FL for children with critical illnesses needing a week-long, cost-free vacation with their families. Find out how volunteering at a place like this can transform your life and make your troubles seem small.

Winston Churchill Returns

Tea with Winston Churchill (interpreted by Bruce Collier) is back for 2020 since his performance tea was a sell-out last year. This year, find out how The Honorable Winston Churchill found happiness during the most troubling times of his historic career.

Do butterflies put a smile on your face? Annette Wise, leader of the Rosalynn Carter Butterfly Trail program based in Plains, Georgia will provide gardening tips to attract butterflies to your backyard. Find out about the program started by Former First Lady Rosalynn Carter and how your garden can be listed on the Rosalynn Carter Butterfly Trail!

New Chautauqua Exhibit!

Begin your journey with self-guided tours of the original Florida Chautauqua grounds through the City's new interpretive panel exhibit! Program Chair Christopher Mitchell will start you on your way on Thursday with a brief introduction of Florida Chautauqua history at the main panel (shown above), then direct you to the 17 others throughout the grounds where you will walk in the footsteps of presidents, first ladies, famous poets, Hollywood stars, astronauts and more!

Questions? Email the program chair:

 or call (850) 892-7613

First 50 people to purchase a $150 passport to the entire event will receive a free copy of Ryan Holiday's book "Stillness is the Key." Ryan will autograph following his Friday featured keynote presentation January 24, 2020.

Mayor Clayton is Coming!

Bring your camera! The Honorable Mayor Clayton is coming from Give Kids The World Village. Find out about the power of selfless giving through the eyes of this lovable rabbit that bring so many smiles to children with critical illnesses.

Let's have a surprise birthday party for Mayor Clayton! Please bring a new, unwrapped toy for Mayor Clayton to take back to the Village! Give it to him personally at Saturday's Evening Dinner Birthday Celebration!

Back by popular demand! Enjoy your Friday evening dinner with live entertainment by Guitarist Chris Alvarado, a favorite among many Florida Panhandle music enthusiasts!
