

Larger Than Life

Old friend of mine, I'm left here with regret
But we both did the best we could
To strike a balance between friends and family
The time we spent together was so good

You brought laughter to the heart and rhythm to the song
A friend on which you knew you could depend
A husband and a father, a brother and a son
What you gave to each of us will never end

To say that you were larger than life
Is true, but there was so much more to see
A man who cannot be replaced, memories in a treasured place
Farewell, until we meet in eternity

Somewhere out above the stars tonight
Beyond what any telescope can see
You're making yourself at home within the brightest light
Without worry, without pain, and full of peace

To say that you were larger than life
Is true, but there was so much more to see
A man who cannot be replaced, memories in a treasured place
Farewell, until we meet in eternity

© 2025 Chris Baker