

Why Choose Nigerian Dwarf Goats

- Known to be very friendly when raised as bottle fed kids
- Make a great pet
- Only breed of goat that can have blue eyes
- A real dairy goat in a smaller package
- Adult does and bucks are much easier to handle than standard sized goats
- Require less feed than standard sized goats
- Are disbudded as kids so you won't have horns that can hurt you or other goats
- Come in a wide variety of coat colors and patterns
- Adult does are no taller than 22.5 inches and adult bucks are no taller than 23.5 inches
- Requirements for shelter and pasture are smaller than for standard sized goats
- They are fun to play with and easy to hold
- Fun when they climb on you when they are kids
