- Applicants must be students at a FAPSC member school and residents of the United States.
- All applicants are promptly notified of the results once evaluations are completed.
- Evaluations are conducted using redacted materials and a rubric to ensure fair review without revealing the applicant's school.
- Updates are posted on the FAPSC Foundation LinkedIn page and website throughout the process for member schools.
- Schools should keep the Foundation and students informed of Registrar contact details to facilitate enrollment validation.
- A new application is required for each cycle; please check the website to avoid distributing outdated applications.
- The scholarship provides $1,000 towards tuition, books, or supplies, with checks made payable to the institution on behalf of the student and sent directly to the institution.
- At least 10 scholarships are awarded per cycle, with the possibility of more depending on donations.
