2026 Scholarship Application

Include with this document a typed Personal Statement/Essay of no more than 500 words – one page only - addressing the following six elements:

1. A brief overview of your current situation.
2. Experiences that have motivated you to pursue education at a FAPSC member school (include the name of the school and your chosen program of study).
3. How these experiences will support your career choice.
4. Your personal goals and aspirations.
5. How education will help you achieve these goals.
6. Why the FAPSC Foundation should consider you for a scholarship.

Feel free to share any additional information that would help the committee learn more about you and assist them in their selection process.

Attach two letters of recommendation: These references should come from employers, associates, current or former instructors, or other individuals who can speak to your character, commitment, and desire to continue your education.

Note: Personal Statement/Essay should be one page only. Send all documents in one email.

Upon completing the application, sign and date it.

Submit the completed form, personal statement/essay, and letters of recommendation electronically to the FAPSC Foundation at application@FAPSCFoundation.org before the established deadline for the application and award cycle.

IMPORTANT: Application and attachments should be sent in one email only. Do not send documents separately.

AUTHORIZATION

Applicant must sign below to be considered.

I have read and understand the requirements and instructions for this scholarship. I affirm that I plan to pursue a career from a FAPSC member school. I give permission to officials of the FAPSC member school to release academic transcripts and other information requested if I am chosen as a recipient of the scholarship. I affirm that I meet all the requirements, and that the information provided in this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. The personal statement is my own original work and does not infringe on the rights of any third party. If this scholarship for which I am applying is granted to me and I accept it, I hereby agree to abide by the provisions as described in the FAPSC member school catalog and ancillary materials. I further understand that if I withdraw or am dismissed from the FAPSC member school prior to completion of my program, I will not be eligible to apply for or receive further scholarship disbursements from the FAPSC Foundation. In the event I am selected as a recipient of a scholarship, I grant permission to the FAPSC Foundation and the FAPSC member school to use my name and likeness as well as my personal statement or excerpts from that statement in conjunction with press releases and marketing materials related to the FAPSC Foundation and the scholarship award.
