

Religious Education - Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - January 23rd, 2022

Gospel Message**
“The text is being fulfilled today “

Gospel, we are back on track this week with Saint Luke whom we will follow for the rest of the year. Today is about beginnings: the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. It begins with the Word of God, in the synagogue. Jesus reads from the Old Testament, as we do every Sunday, and tells the people that it is fulfilled in him.

Everything that God has said to his people, through his prophets, comes together in Jesus, the Incarnate Word of God. Today is an ideal Sunday to think about the ministry of reader, about how as readers we make present the same fulfillment, Jesus, when we read the word of God in our Churches.

Reflection:

Like, Jesus, we catechists do what we do because of the Holy Spirit. Jesus announced that the Spirit of the Lord was upon him. That same Spirit lives and breathes within us, enabling us to bring glad tidings to others, to free others from the captivity of sin, to help others to see, to overcome the oppression of sin, and to proclaim that the Lord's time is now.

We pray that, in the days ahead, we may be filled with the Holy Spirit and recognize that we have been “anointed” to serve as catechists in Jesus’ name.
