Students, please join us before Mass every weekend in October as we pray the Rosary for the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

We are in need of our CI & CII students to help us prepare the food shelf bags for distribution at Mass. This is a great service project opportunity as you can easily do this while listening to music, or chatting with family and add a prayer for all those in need. The cold of winter is coming and this is a great way to help provide for our community! Contact Janice for supplies, 518.643.2435 (Service opportunity!) Thank you!

“ Go and sell everything you own, and follow me. “

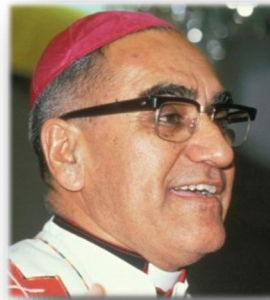

In today's story of the rich young man, who comes to Jesus full of good intentions, there are some simple words that speak so clearly to our own age: when Jesus tells him to sell every-thing and give it to the poor, his face fell at these words, and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth." How sad it is that such a keen (he runs up to Jesus), and by all accounts good young man (whom Jesus loves) could not free himself from the one thing that was holding him back his dependence on money. Jesus' words "How hard it is..." perhaps indicate his own sadness that the young man could not free himself from this. Jesus' teaching was new as the disciples reaction shows. In Israel at the time, riches were thought to be a blessing from God. But as Jesus knew and taught, holding on to anything that passes away can distract us from holding on to things that are eternal.

Pope to canonize Paul VI, Oscar Romero

ROME - Pope Francis has chosen the date for the ceremony that will see the Catholic Church officially recognize the sainthood of Pope Paul VI and Oscar Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, who was martyred as he was celebrating Mass: They will be canonized on Oct. 14, 2018.

The highly anticipated announcement was made in May 2018, during an ordinary public consistory, meaning a meeting of the pope, cardinals and the promoters of sainthood causes. The October ceremony, to be celebrated by Francis, will be in Rome, during the Synod of Bishops on the youth that will take place from October 3 to 28, 2018. The sainthood causes of four other people - two Italian priests and two women founders of religious orders, one German and one Spanish, were also approved.

“Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” If you ask the Lord this question in prayer, are you ready to respond with a joyful “yes”? Consider following Christ more closely as a priest, deacon or in consecrated life. Talk to Fr. Alan at 643-6759 or Fr. THE FIRST WORD OF JESUS in the Gospel was “come”; the last word of Jesus was “go.” (Ven. Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

Where is God calling you to “come” and “go?”
