

Mean * Mal

Rules/expectations

1. Do not send to other goddesses without seeking approval from me first.
2. Ignore point 1 if you are working towards ownership with me.
3. Say good morning and good night every day with a tribute if you are going to say it. It's annoying otherwise.
4. Be selfless, always.
5. Speak to me with respect and do not demand.
6. Never question my decision unless it is going to put you at harm, is illegal or contradicts something I already instructed you to do.
7. Do not comment on other goddesses posts being a slut because it makes my name look bad. Normal engaging comments are perfectly fine. It's also fine to partake in other goddesses RT games.
8. Must partake in #meanmalmonday every Monday without fail.
9. Must make regular payments to show appreciation for my time and efforts in the dynamic.
10. Be honest and clear in your communication. If you can't meet a demand, I expect a clear explanation as to why. Anything you have on your mind regarding the dynamic is also required to be discussed whether this may impact the dynamic or not.
