A GUIDE TO BUILDING BETTER MEN

Presented by
Dr. R. Timothy Jones

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

More than 90% of American men believe in God.

Two-third of the men in America do not attend church.

Less than 10% of churches can maintain a thriving men's ministry.

On any given Sunday there are 13 million more adult women than men in America's churches.

Millions of married women worship without their husbands every week ("weekend widows").

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

Continued

Only 1 out of every 18 men are involved in some kind of discipleship program.

Midweek activities often draw 70 to 80 percent female participants.

75% of volunteers are women.

17% of African American men do not have a close friend or someone one to confide.

Over 70% of boys who are being raised in church will abandon it during their teens and twenties. Many of these boys will never return.

WHY MEN MATTER

If a child is the first to become a Christian there's a 3.5% chance the rest of the household will follow; if the mother is first there's a 17% chance; but if the father is the first, there is a 93% chance that everyone else in the household will follow.

WHY MEN MATTER

Here's the good news; If we get men right, we will get marriages right too. If we get marriages right, then we will get families right. If we get families right, we will get church right. And if we get church right, then God will change the world.

How to Disciple Men [Jay Payleitner and David Murrow, editors; forward by Patrick Morley. p. ix]

WHY MEN MATTER

In her book Male and Female, anthropologist Margaret Mead said, “Every known human society rest firmly on the learned nurturing behavior of men... The formation of such men is the first task of human civilization, and its largest threat when ignored.”

THE REAL AIM

- A lesson from Matt Emmons
- The goal should NOT be to attract MORE men.
- The goal should to build better men.
- If we build better men they will inspire other men to be better men.

THREE MODELS OF MEN'S MINISTRY

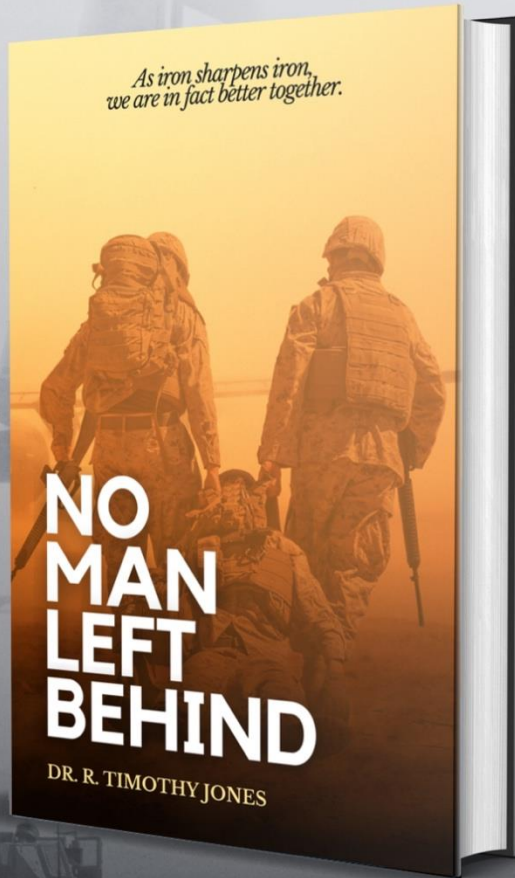

(Why Each Model Struggles)

A top-down collage of various items on a light blue background. In the top left is a white mug with a light brown beverage. To its right are a pair of black-rimmed glasses. Further right is a large straw hat with a black band. Below the hat is a blue and white checkered bow tie. In the bottom right corner is a plaid shirt. On the left side, there is a gift wrapped in orange and white checkered paper with a dark blue ribbon. At the bottom left are two black mustache cutouts on sticks and a dark blue heart-shaped paper cutout. Another dark blue heart is near the top left, and a small one is at the bottom center.

1. What is this?
2. What's the point?
3. Where and when is a man safe?
4. Where and when is a man vulnerable (at risk)?
5. Who wins?
6. How does a man score?
