

Soil Health Workshop: Implementing the Tools of Soil Health

Are you interested in learning more about how you can improve the soil carbon on your farm? Come to this half day workshop to learn more about soil health, featuring Soil Health Specialist Jay Fuhrer.:

Thursday, March 12 at Minnesota West Campus Worthington, MN

OR Friday, March 13 at Southwest Minnesota State University Marshall, MN

10 am – 2:30 pm; Registration begins at 9:30

Topics Covered include:

- Key basic principles and concepts of soil health
- Tools of soil health management detailed by local farmers implementing soil health practices
- Soil health demonstrations
- Recognizing improvements to our agricultural landscape

Cost: $10 per person – meal provided

The same event will be held at two locations:

March 12th
MN West Campus (next to YMCA)
Administration Building (1st floor)
Commons Area
1450 College Way
Worthington, MN 56187

March 13th
SMSU
Conference Center
Upper Grand Ballroom
1501 State St.
Marshall, MN 56258

Please RSVP to Barb Daly for meal count:

507-283-9146 ext. 3 or

barbara.daly@mn.usda.gov

by March 9th

In the event you require special accommodations, including accessibility or dietary needs please make that information known when you preregister.