Veltyco Group PLC
("Veltyco" or "the Company")

Response to ESMA announcement

Veltyco Group PLC (AIM: VLTY), the online marketing and operator company for the gaming industry, notes the recent announcements by the Financial Conduct Authority and the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") in which they outlined the regulatory changes ESMA proposes in order to prohibit the provision of binary options and to restrict the provision of Contracts for Difference ("CFDs") in order to protect retail clients within the EU, initially on a temporary basis.

The Company confirms that none of the operators for whom Veltyco undertakes marketing activities offer a binary option product, as such products have previously been withdrawn in anticipation of such regulatory changes. Furthermore, the operators have confirmed to the Company that they are operating in line with the restrictions proposed by ESMA on CFD trading. Accordingly, the Board believes that the regulatory changes will have no impact on Veltyco's overall operations and results.

The Company is pleased to confirm that trading for the current financial year remains in line with market expectations.

This announcement contains inside information for the purposes of Article 7 of Regulation (EU) 596/2014.
