

ROMAN RIVER

festival 28 SEPT-
2 OCT 22

Not to be missed
this autumn:
Magical evenings of glorious music from world-class musicians

Ben Goldscheider | Wivenhoe Church
Wednesday 28 September, 8pm
£20 | £5 under 20s

BBC Young Musician winner Ben Goldscheider (horn) performs Brahms and Ethel Smythe, with Rick Uttley (piano) and Callum Smart (violin).

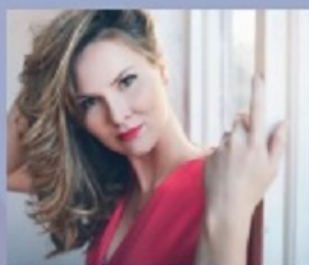

Marian Consort | Coggeshall Church
Thursday 29 September, 8pm
£25 main | £15 side | £5 under 20s

The superb vocal ensemble Marian Consort returns with Tallis, Byrd and more, in Coggeshall with its wonderful acoustics and warm atmosphere.

Martin James Bartlett | Coggeshall Church
Friday 30 September, 8pm
£25 main | £15 side | £5 under 20s

Solo piano recital from Martin James Bartlett, Essex-born winner of the BBC Young Musician of the year.

Song of the Earth | Coggeshall Church
Saturday 1 October, 6pm
£25 main | £15 side | £5 under 20s

Mahler's great symphony, the Song of the Earth, with soprano Marta Fontanals-Simmonds and the Wild Arts Ensemble.

Wild Arts Ensemble | Coggeshall Church
Sunday 2 October, 6pm
£25 main | £15 side | £5 under 20s

Beethoven's beautiful Pastoral Symphony and intoxicatingly beautiful music from Janáček's The Cunning Little Vixen. Conducted by Orlando Jopling.