Note: All conservatorship fees are subject to Court approval under the California Probate Code and/or the Local Rules of Court. In addition, all extraordinary estate representative fees in probates are subject to Court approval. In addition, regular statutory fees in probate will not be paid until ordered by the Court.

Note: Trustee's fees may be paid from trust-titled assets by a fiduciary unless said trust is under a specific court order mandating the Court's approval before payment. Complicated trusts that require extensive management may be negotiated at a percentage rate of the market value of the assets being managed annually.
