

These letters were hand-drawn in VR, with each material representing something that starts with the corresponding letter. Unfortunately, due to my Meta account being hacked, I have no access to the original files at the moment. I keep trying to get it back. Despite this setback, the project remains a favorite of mine. You can explore more details and see additional visuals on my Instagram.

36 DAYS

OF TYPE

2022