Last Game

The first professional grand slam and a career-high six RBIs and seven total bases from Marcus Mooney guided the Gary SouthShore RailCats to a 14-9 win on a hot and sunny Sunday afternoon at Routine Field. Sunday's win gives Gary their second series win of the month and the RailCats fifth victory (fourth straight) in six games against the Milkmen. Mooney reached base in his first five plate appearances, tied a career-high with four hits, scored twice and extended his league-high hit by pitch total to 12 after getting plunked in his second-to-last plate appearance. Seth Hougesen (1-1) was activated from the Disabled List before the game and recorded his first professional win after allowing four runs over a career-high five innings pitched. The left-hander from Indianapolis retired the last 10 batters he faced and 12 of the final 13 he saw while yielding just five hits and a walk. Derek Hefel (0-2) was charged with the loss in his first American Association start. The right-hander allowed a season-high 10 runs on 10 hits and six walks over 4.2 innings.

'Cats improve to 5-1 against Milkmen

The RailCats won their fourth straight game against Milwaukee and are now 5-1 against the Milkmen following Sunday's 14-9 victory. Gary has also outscored Milwaukee, 42-30, head-to-head and have six guys hitting over .300 against the Milkmen.

Stealing with efficiency

Gary is second in the American Association with an 84% (59/70) successful stealing rate after Colin Willis stole third in Sunday's 14-9 victory. The reigning champion Kansas City T-Bones lead the league with a 86% (62/72) successful stealing rate and are fifth in the league in total stolen bases. Willis is a perfect 12/12 in stolen base attempts this season while Will Savage has yet to be thrown out in five attempts.

Transaction wire heavy

The Gary SouthShore RailCats lead the American Association with 89 transactions after placing right-handed pitcher Dugan Darnell on irrevocable waivers and signing right-handed pitcher Darin May to his first professional baseball contract before Monday's series finale against Milwaukee. 29 days into July, the 'Cats have made 38 moves in the month, including six in the last three days.

Willis named American Association All-Star Game MVP

RailCats lone All-Star Colin Willis was named the American Association All-Star Game MVP after going 2-for-2 with two RBIs, a double and a run off the bench for the North Division in a 7-3 win over the South on Tuesday night at CHS Field in St. Paul, Minn. Trailing the South 3-0 through 3 & 1/2 innings, the North scored seven unanswered runs to win 7-3. Willis is third in the league with 50 walks and is slashing .278/.408/.462/.870. Willis also leads the Gary offense in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, triples, home runs, extra-base hits, RBIs, total bases, walks, stolen bases, multi-hit games, multi-run games, multi-walk games, slugging percentage and OPS.

RailCats' Previous Series

Gary was swept for the second straight series after getting swept by Sioux City on Thursday night.

Milkmen's Previous Series

Milwaukee took two of three from Chicago earlier in the week after winning the first two games of the series against the Dogs in Rosemont, Ill., on Wednesday and Thursday.

Scouting Milwaukee

Milwaukee enters Monday's series finale 1.5 games ahead of Gary for fifth in the North Division after losing 14-9 on Sunday. The Milkmen have relied on their pitching staff predominantly this year. Milwaukee leads the American Association with four complete games and rank fifth in strikeouts. The Milkmen also have four midseason All-Stars on their team (Manuel Boscan, catcher; T.J. House, starting pitcher; Angel Ventura, starting pitcher; Myles Smith, relief pitcher).

Last Transaction

The RailCats placed right-handed pitcher Dugan Darnell on irrevocable waivers and signed right-handed pitcher Darin May to his first professional baseball contract before Monday's series finale against Milwaukee.

RailCats Nuggets

Coaching Staff

Field Manager, Greg Tagert

Greg Tagert returns to the Gary SouthShore Railcats in 2019 for his 15th season (25th overall) as the team's manager. Tagert has won three league championships (2005, 2007, 2013) and has finished with a .500 winning percentage or better record in every season except one since being named the team's manager in 2005.

The RailCats qualified for the American Association playoffs for the second straight season in 2018 after claiming the North Division Title on the final day of the regular season. Gary also finished with a single-season franchise record 59 regular-season wins in 2018. The Railcats regular-season Division Title and back-to-back playoff appearances were also firsts for Gary since merging from the now defunct Northern league to the American Association in 2011.

Tagert, a four-time League Manager of the Year (2001, 2007, 2009, 2016), has led Gary to the playoffs eight times (six straight from 2005-2010), six Championship Series, two Central Division Titles, one North Division Title, and has helped advance 24 former RailCats to affiliated baseball, including 2006 outfielder Nathan Haynes, who played in the MLB for the Los Angeles Angels and Tampa Bay Rays from 2007-2008. Tagert's most recent player to have his contract purchased by an MLB affiliate was shortstop Ryan Fitzgerald, who had his contract purchased by the Boston Red Sox on May 3, 2018.

Tagert has developed three Northern League Pitchers of the Year, two League Rookie of the Year winners, a Northern League Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, five Baseball America All-Independent League selections, eight full-season Northern League All-Stars and two full-season American Association All-Stars.

Tagert has also helped advance over 20 coaches to the affiliated ranks, has three former coaches currently managing in Independent Baseball and has three former players/coaches currently coaching in the Major Leagues (Anthony Iapoche, Chicago Cubs Hitting Coach; Andy Haines, Milwaukee Brewers Hitting Coach; Jose Yopez, Atlanta Braves Bullpen Catcher).

Before becoming a professional manager in 1995, Tagert worked as a scout for the Detroit Tigers and as a pitching coach at the University of New Mexico. A native of Vacaville, Calif., Tagert pitched collegiately at San Francisco State University.

Tagert and his wife, Mary, have four children (sons Ben, Josh and Sam, and daughter, Elaine).

Pitching Coach, Alain Quijano

Alain Quijano returns to the Gary SouthShore RailCats in 2019 for his fifth straight season as the team's pitching coach. The RailCats pitching staff in 2018 finished with the second-best ERA (3.65), issued the fewest number of walks (227) and intentional walks (two), committed the fewest number of balks (one) and finished with the most complete games (seven) and complete game shutouts (three).

Since being named the team's pitching coach in 2015, Quijano has had five players have their contracts purchased by Major League Affiliates — RHP Matt Solter, 2016 (San Francisco Giants); LHP Alex Gunn, 2016 (Arizona Diamondbacks); RHP Christian Herstine, 2016 (New York Yankees); RHP Karl Triana, 2016 (Baltimore Orioles); LHP Carlos Diaz, 2017 (Miami Marlins).

Quijano played nine seasons of Independent Professional Baseball, including three with Gary (2009, 2011, 2013). Quijano's best season with the RailCats was on the 2013 Championship Team, in which the southpaw won a career-high and RailCats single-season-high-tying 12 games. Quijano finished the season 12-7 with a 4.05 ERA in 21 starts, striking out 82 batters in 133.1 innings. Quijano concluded his professional baseball career in 2014 with the York Revolution of the Atlantic League, posting a 10-10 record with a 4.59 ERA in a career-high 28 starts and 168.2 innings pitched.

During the college baseball season, Quijano serves as the pitching coach at South Suburban College in South Holland, Ill. Prior to being named the pitching coach at SSC in 2019, Quijano began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater Grand View College from 2005-06, before returning as an assistant coach from 2009-2010. Quijano was then the pitching coach at Iowa Wesleyan College in 2011, before serving as the pitching coaching and recruiting coordinator at Moraine Valley Community College from 2012-13. Quijano was then the pitching coach at Olive-Harvey College from 2015-16, before being promoted to head coach in 2017.

Quijano resides in Oak Lawn, Ill., with his wife, Rebecca, and their two children (daughter, Maryanna; son, Maximus).

Third Base Coach, Doug Coe

Doug Coe joins the Gary SouthShore RailCats for his first season in 2019 as the team's third base coach. Coe will also work with the catchers on an every day basis.

Coe played two seasons of Independent Professional Baseball as a catcher for the Windy City Thunderbolts of the Frontier League from 2008-2009. In his first season of professional baseball in 2008, Coe slashed .227/.402/.394/.796 with two home runs and 13 RBIs in 24 games. Coe concluded his pro playing career in 2000, slashing .171/.271/.244/.515 with three doubles and five RBIs in 15 games.

Prior to his pro career, Coe played collegiately at Lawrence University and at the UW—Stevens Point from 2004-2008. Coe was a two-time All-Midwest Conference selection at Lawrence from 2004-2005 before transferring to UW—Stevens Point in 2006. As a junior in 2006, Coe played in a school record 53 games and was named All-WIAC Honorable Mention and Second Team All-Midwest Region after finishing second in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) with 13 home runs and 117 total. Behind the plate, Coe threw out 57% (13/23) of baserunners in 51 starts.

Coe batted .481 with one home run and seven RBIs in seven games as a senior in 2007 before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Coe received a medical redshirt in 2008 and was given a fifth year of eligibility. As a redshirt-senior in 2008, Coe was named the WIAC Position Player of the Year, First Team All-Region, Second Team D3Baseball.com All-American and First Team ABCA All-American after .438/.542/.810/1.352 with 67 hits, 27 extra-base hits, 15 home runs, 59 RBIs, 124 total bases and a .994 fielding percentage.

Coe was inducted into the UW—Stevens Point Athletics Hall of Fame in 2018, becoming one of 19 baseball alumni to be recognized. During the college baseball season, Coe works as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UW—Stevens Point. Prior to working as an assistant coach at UW—Stevens Point, Coe was the head baseball coach at Notre Dame Academy in Green Bay, Wis., from 2015-16 and was the assistant head coach at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis., from 2010-14.

Coe resides in De Pere, Wis., with his wife, Marcy, and their daughter, Kinsley.

First Base Coach, Marty Joyce

Marty Joyce returns to the Gary SouthShore RailCats for his second season as an assistant coach. After working as the RailCats analytics director in 2018, Joyce was promoted to first base coach and defensive coordinator in 2019.

Joyce completed his first season as the head baseball coach at Olive-Harvey College in Chicago, Ill. in the spring of 2019 and was the assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator from 2017-18. Joyce played collegiate baseball at Moraine Valley Community College in Palos Hills, Ill., from 2012-13 and played high school baseball at Lockport Township High School. Joyce also played for the Great Lakes Regional Team during the 2006 Little League World Series in Williamsport, Penn.

Joyce is a 2011 graduate of Lockport Township High School and currently resides in Lockport, Ill.

Assistant Coach, Lee Fischer

Lee Fischer joins the Gary SouthShore RailCats for his first season in 2019 as an assistant coach. Fischer will work directly with the RailCats hitters.

Fischer comes to the RailCats after coaching the hitters and infielders at South Suburban College. Fischer was picked in the 46th round of the 2008 MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox out of the University of Missouri and played in their minor league system for two seasons, reaching Triple-A. Fischer made his professional baseball debut with the Great Falls Voyagers (Rookie Affiliate) of the Pioneer League in 2008 and slashed .206/.307/.237/.543 with 22 runs, 27 hits, four doubles, 12 RBIs and three stolen bases in 45 games before getting promoted to the Kannapolis Intimidators (Class-A) of the South Atlantic League later in the year.

Fischer returned to Kannapolis to begin the 2009 season and slashed .216/.333/.275/.608 with 10 runs, 11 hits, three doubles, four RBIs and a stolen base 20 games before getting reassigned to the Bristol White Sox (Rookie Affiliate) of the Appalachian League. Fischer went 1-for-3 with a double in his only game with Bristol before going 1-for-2 with a double in his only game with the Charlotte Knights (Triple-A Affiliate) of the International League.

Fischer played his college baseball at South Suburban College, Illinois State and the University of Missouri. In 2006 he was a part of an SSC team that won 35 straight games and advanced to the NJCAA Juco World Series; Fischer was a First Team All-American and was named the best defensive player in the nation.

Born in Palos Park, Ill., Fischer attended Carl Sandburg High School in Orland Park, Ill., where he hit .380 for his career and .420 in his senior season. Fischer was a two-time All-Conference and All-Area selection for the Eagles and won an Illinois High School State Championship in 2001.

Fischer currently resides in Orland Park, Ill.
